

PART IX - REGISTER OF MERIT AND CIRCLE OF HONOR

SECTION 1: REGISTER OF MERIT

ROM points may be acquired by any AKC registered Chow Chow sire or dam, whether currently living or deceased. -

The person submitting data for qualifying a dog or bitch for the ROM title is responsible for providing all documentation to substantiate the title.

The persons applying for the Register of Merit must submit a completed ROM Qualification Form or another document containing the required information and the following validations.

NOTE: Validations may include copies of documents that come from AKC or OFA to include their computer reports and published documentation from the CCCI. All wins and titles must be AKC, AKC recognized or CCCI statistics. All health clearances must be from OFA or any other CCCI acceptable organization.

- 1) The registered name and AKC number of the dog or bitch achieving the honor and their get.
- 2) The names of the breeder(s) and owner(s) of the dog or bitch achieving the honor.
- 3) For each show win, validation of that win. This can be a copy of report from AKC Show Awards or the AKC Progeny report. It may also be a copy of show superintendent's show results.
- 4) For Chow Chow Club Inc. awards, a copy of certificate awarded from CCCI or Chow Life issue and page number where it is listed i.e., Top Ten Chow Chows, Supreme Chow and Premier Bitch.
- 5) For each title (AKC Champion, AKC Grand Champion, AKC Obedience or AKC Performance) Validation of that title. This can be a copy of AKC Awards report listing the dog or bitch with the title, a copy of Title achieved Certificate from AKC, an AKC Progeny report listing the titles or the Chow Life Issue and page number where it is listed.
- 6) For Health Clearances, a copy of the certificate OFA printed report from the OFA database, the CCCI OFA data base or the Chow Life issue and page number where it is listed.

- 7) For the dog or bitch claiming the points, validation is needed for the parent/offspring relationship achieving the ROM honor. This could be a copy of the AKC Registration Certificate, AKC Pedigree, a copy of the AKC Progeny Report, a copy of AKC Offspring report or a copy of OFA progeny report. Pedigrees or Reverse Pedigrees from The Chow Chow Club, Inc. Pedigree Database may also be used.
- 8) Copy of AKC Registration Certificate for dog/bitch being submitted for ROM.

To qualify for the Register of Merit Title, the following criteria must be met:

- A. Dogs must have 130 points, earned by at least 8 different progeny, including 4 AKC Champion offspring.
- B. Bitches must have 110 points, earned by at least 4 different progeny, including 2 AKC Champion Offspring.

Persons submitting for a ROM award are to get written confirmation within 45 days. The communication will serve to either advise that the ROM submission was incomplete or incorrect for specified reason(s) or that the award has been earned and the ROM title is confirmed from date of communication. The certificate will be awarded at the next Annual Awards Presentation.

On a quarterly basis, a list of current qualifiers is to be published in Chow Life. The ROM committee is to be responsible to forward to Chow Life by the cutoff date for the upcoming issue.

Those applying and being accepted for the ROM each year will be recognized at the Annual Awards Banquet with a Certificate.

SECTION 2: CIRCLE OF HONOR AWARDS

The Register of Merit-Circle of Honor Awards utilize The CCCI's existing Register of Merit (ROM) program to recognize committed long-term breeders and/or co-breeders, and also recognize chows that are living or dead that have distinguished themselves by their titled offspring. As ROM titles accumulate, the recipient may receive the next higher award. The recipient of an award must be a The CCCI, Inc. member in good standing at the time of receiving the award. A list of all Circle of Honor award holders will be included in The CCCI Website.

Circle of Honor recipients will be awarded with a plaque to commemorate the achievement. Additional plaques may be purchased at cost plus shipping by an owner or breeder.
